

Llanelli Fashion Week March 21-25, across Llanelli

Llanelli played host to the first fashion week from March 21 to March 25. Five days of glitz, glamour and stripped-down Scarlets ended with a bang at the Stradey Park Hotel, where Swansea Life caught up with the arrangers and producers of the show.

After five shows in five days, the producers behind Llanelli Fashion Week, Brian Brown and Lee McCallion, of McCallion Brown Management, had a chance to catch their breath and look back at a hectic week.

"We're based in Swansea, but the Stadey Park Hotel has basically been our office this week. It has been hard work, but the support we have received from sponsors and local retailers has been fantastic," they said.

The proceeds from all the shows go to the Ray Gravell and Friends Charitable Trust, which supports different causes in West Wales. The owner of Stradey Park Hotel, Angela Saunders, also the arranger of the show, said she was pleased with how things had gone.

"It has been a fantastic week. I think the weather has helped," she said. "We had more than 850 people for the event on Wednesday and most of the others were sold out as well."

1. Fern Healey 2. Mark Williams and Darlene Hughes 3. Andrew Stephens, Mandy Morgan, Christine Thomas and Andrew Shufflebottom 4. The Rev Eldon Phillips and Marilyn Williams 5. Melanie Jenkins and Margaret Roberts 6. Natasha Williams, Angharad Howells and Kayleigh Hilde 7. Anne Roblin and Mary Bennett 8. Emily Dunnage and Emily Latham 9. Melissa Urquhart, Hannah Jane Thorne and Marilyn Thorne 10. Zoe Jones and Linzi Jones 11. Kate McKenny and Zoe Green 12. Sian Evans, Sarah Carlson and Angharad Gore 13. Brian Brown and friends 14. Meryl Gravell, Simon Walters, Lee McCallion and Bede MacGowan 15. Meryl Gravell, Emma Jenkins, Lee McCallion and Bede MacGowan 16. Chloe Porter and Rhian Thomas 17. Emily and Anna Latham 18. Marc Prosser, Michelle Lewis and Craig Lewis 19. Justin Scott Morgan, Josh Barran, Adam Peter Holden and Richard Watkins 20. Nicola Harris and Eleri Davies 21. Audrey Richardson and Nanette Rees 22. Tania Jenkins, Emma Jenkins and Nicky Grant 23. Robert Williams and Angela Saunders 24. Alana Lewis and Sue Moore.

Photographs by Andrew Davies

